

November 27, 2012

Opening and Welcoming

02.00 p.m.

Short welcoming speech

Anita Tack

Brandenburgian Minister for Environment, Health and Consumer Protection

Dr. Michał Kięsznia

General Director for Environmental Protection, Warsaw, Poland

I. Management of the International Park Lower Oder Valley – an Alliance of Protected Areas in the lower Oder valley

02.30 – 2.50 p.m.

National Park Lower Oder Valley – the only river flood plain national park in Germany

Dirk Treichel, Head of the National Park

2.50 – 3.10 p.m.

The Landscape Reserves Dolina Dolnej Odry and Cedynia – Ecological brick in the European NATURA 2000 sites

Igor Szakowski, Regional Directorate of Environmental Protection in Szczecin / Dorota Janicka, Head of the Alliance of the Landscapes Reserves of the West Pomeranian Voivodship

3.10 – 3.25 p.m.

Introduction to the Interreg IVA project

Iwona Podrygala, project coordinator, National Park Lower Oder Valley

Break

II. The INTERREG IV A-Project „Harmonization and optimization of the management of NATURA 2000 sites in cross-border natural geographic region lower Oder valley – first results of the project

4.10 – 4.30 p.m.

Monitoring and management for habitat types:
Approaches to harmonization

Dr. Jana Chmielewski, Hochschule für Nachhaltige Entwicklung Eberswalde / Andrzej Jermaczek, Klub Przyrodników

Monitoring results and management recommendations

Dr. Andreas Langer, Planland Gbr / Katarzyna Barańska, Klub Przyrodników

4.40 – 5.10 p.m.

Monitoring and management of species of the FFH Directive and the Directive on the Conservation of Wild Birds

Damian Spieczński, Biuro Konserwacji Przyrody S.C.

5.10 – 5.25 p.m.

First results of the project: Environmental education and public relations work

Renata Sadowska, project assistant, National Park Lower Oder Valley

5.25 – 5.40 p.m.

First results of the project: Tourism infrastructure

Paweł Terefenko, project assistant, Regional Directorate of Environmental Protection in Szczecin

5.40 – 6.00 p.m.

Questions and discussion

7.30 – 10:00 p.m.

Evening buffet: Theaterfoyer

November 28, 2012

III. Morning Excursion

08.30 a.m. – 1.30 p.m.

Transfer from uckermärkische Bühnen Schwedt (ubs, theater)

a) The National Park Center in Criewen

- National Park Information centre

- Construction site of building NATURA 2000

- Castle and Lenné Park

b) Monitoring concepts and management concepts using the examples of selected sample areas

c) Development of wilderness in forest areas and flood plain areas

d) Mescherin – Watch tower, section in which the old floodbank was removed up to the level of the surrounding area, seat of the Regional Directorate of Environmental Protection, Gryfino

12.30 a.m.

Lunch on the Polish site

1.30 p.m.

Return to the theater of Schwedt

IV. Cross-Border Protected Areas in Europe

2.30 – 2.50 p.m.

The certification system of the project “Transboundary Parks – Following Nature’s Design“

Leo Reylink, EUROPARC Federation, Transboundary Working Group

2.50 – 3.10 p.m.

Pan Parks – Maintenance and Certification of European Wilderness Areas

Alexander Zinke, Zinke Environment Consulting for Central and Eastern Europe

3.10 – 3.30 p.m.

ALPARC, the Network of the Alpine Protected Areas

Dr. Michael Vogel, ALPARC, National Park Berchtesgaden

3.30 – 3.50 p.m.

The Trilateral Co-operation Wadden Sea

Peter Südbeck, Head of National Park Lower Saxon Wadden Sea

3.50 – 4.10 p.m.

DANUBEPARKS Net

Georg Frank/Magdalena Wagner, DANUBEPARKS Net

4.10-4.30 p.m.

Questions and discussion

Break

V. Best Practice Examples – Nature Conservation

5.00 – 5.20 p.m.

Finland - Russia

National Park Oulanka and National Park Paanajärvi – 20 years of transboundary cooperation

Sari Alatossava, Oulanka National Park

5.20 – 5.40 p.m.

Poland – Republic of Belarus

National Park Beloveszskaya Pushcha and National Park Białowieża

Aleksander Buriy, Chief executive Beloveszskaya Pushcha

5.40 – 6.00 p.m. Czech Republic – Germany

Cross-Border Nature Conservation Management:

National Park Saxon Switzerland and National Park Bohemian Switzerland

Dr. Butter, Lead of National Park Saxon Switzerland

6.00 – 6.15 p.m.

Questions and discussion

6.30 p.m. Departure to Criewen

Region-specific evening program in the Castle Criewen